

Meet MELVA ALLEN

CHIEF INFORMATION OFFICER

Melva Allen is the Chief Information Officer for GACCS serving as the editor to our teen magazine. She has also assisted with branding and the re-design of the GACCS website. A proclaimed servant leader and contributor, she faithfully serves her local church Christian Tabernacle in Southfield, MI and is a mother to 3 beautiful children. She is a talented and dedicated woman of faith working as a leader in her profession in Human Resources, Talent Acquisition, Diversity and Learning & Development. When she is not busy working and being a mother, she spends her time enjoying music, movies, and doing house projects.

It's both inside and outside of the church, she is a servant to the Lord using her God-given gifts and talents. Melva possess the gifts of administration and creativity and lends her skillset to GACCS among others. Additionally, Melva has been a faithful servant at her church Christian Tabernacle for over 15 years, creating visual and multimedia graphics and leads a team of volunteers in the visual arts ministry.

She passionately believes God's promise in Proverbs 18:16 that says, "A man's gifts makes room for them". Believing that God has put a gift or talent in every person that the world would make room for.

Melva has a passion for helping others win and succeed as a giver and motivator. Her passion is to encourage, inspire, empower others to live a god-inspired life that exceeds their limits and Make Everyone's Life Valuable Always.

God Almighty Christian Community Services is grateful to God for Melva's growing contribution and joy in lovingly spreading God's word through multiple media platforms.